

Tabella1

The grid contains a pattern of 'X' characters. The pattern is roughly as follows:

- A vertical column of 'X's starting from row 2, column 47, extending down to row 35, column 47.
- A horizontal row of 'X's starting from row 47, column 27, extending to row 47, column 39.
- Other clusters of 'X's are scattered across the grid, including a group of 'X's at the bottom right and several smaller groups.
